What's New - Changes and Items of Interest

• SA Lockdown – Pies, sandwiches and doughnuts back on sale
ACAPMA has received confirmation in writing that effective immediately petrol stations can sell items that are in their own packaging, including;

- Pies, sausage rolls and other items that are heated and sold in their own packaging as long as there is no “preparation” onsite beyond heating them
- Sandwiches that are sold in their own packaging as long as there is no preparation onsite
- Bakery goods like doughnuts and banana bread sold in their own packaging as long as there is no preparation onsite

As of 00:01 Sunday 22/11/2020 pies, sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee are back on the menu, though ACAPMA will continue to push for these items to be allowed now, and will let you know if anything changes.

As always please reach out with any issues; communications@acapma.com.au
